MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Before the court is the United States’ Motion for Default Judgment, filed June 17, 2015. After careful consideration of the motion, appendix, record, and applicable law, the court grants the United States’ Motion for Default Judgment.

I. Background

The United States (“Plaintiff” or “United States”) filed Plaintiff’s Complaint (“Complaint”) on May 13, 2015, against Kelvin T. Adebayo a/k/a Tunde K. Adebayo (“Defendant” or “Adebayo”). This action arises from the failure of Adebayo to make the required payments on a loan he obtained in May 1989. The loan was disbursed for $2,625 on May 18, 1989, through August 14, 1989, at a variable rate of interest to be established annually by the Department of Education. The loan was guaranteed by California Student Aid Commission and then reinsured by the Department of Education under the loan guaranty programs authorized under Title IV-B of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, 20 U.S.C. 1071 et seq. (34 C.F.R. Part 682). After demand of payment by the United States, Adebayo defaulted on the loan on June 24, 1992.

Adebayo was served with a copy of the summons and Complaint on May 16, 2015. Defendant was required to answer or otherwise respond to the Complaint by June 6, 2015, 21 days after service of the summons and Complaint. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12. To this date, Adebayo has not answered or otherwise responded to the Complaint.

On June 16, 2015, the United States requested the clerk of court to enter a default against Adebayo, and the clerk entered default against Adebayo the same day. Plaintiff now requests the court to enter a default judgment against Adebayo and award it damages and applicable interest as a result of his default.

II. Discussion

A party is entitled to entry of a default by the clerk of the court if the opposing party fails to plead or otherwise defend as required by law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a). Under Rule 55(a), a default must be entered before the court may enter a default judgment. Id.; New York Life Ins. Co. v. Brown, 84 F.3d 137, 141 (5th Cir. 1996). The clerk of court has entered a default against Adebayo. The court also finds, based upon the information in the record, that Defendant is not a minor, incompetent person, or member of the United States military.

Adebayo, by failing to answer or otherwise respond to Plaintiff's Complaint, has admitted the well-pleaded allegations of the Complaint and is precluded from contesting the established facts on appeal. Nishimatsu Constr. Co. v. Houston Nat'l Bank, 515 F.2d 1200, 1206 (5th Cir. 1975) (citations omitted). Based on the well-pleaded allegations of Plaintiff's Complaint, which the court accepts as true, and the record in this action, the court determines that Adebayo is in default and that the United States is entitled to a default judgment and appropriate damages.

Based on the record, the total amount that Adebayo owed the United States as of September 5, 2014, was $6,912.86 ($2,949.50 in principal and $3,963.36 in interest). Interest accrues on the principal at the rate of 3.28% per annum, or a per diem rate of $.26. The number of days from September 5, 2014, to June 18, 2015, is 285, which results in additional interest in the amount of $74.10. Therefore, the total amount of judgment to which the United States is entitled is $6,986.96.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons herein stated, the court grants the United States' Motion for Default Judgment, and Plaintiff is entitled to and shall recover from Defendant the amount of $6,986.96. The court will enter judgment by separate document, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 58, in the amount stated in favor of the United States.

It is so ordered this 18th day of June, 2015.
